

MEET OUR CONDUCTORS

Craig Seymour has been Musical Director of Southern Area Concert Band for more than 26 years and is a enthusiastic advocate. A graduate of Eastern Washington University, USA, he has recently retired from his full time position with the Victorian Education Department as a specialist woodwind instructor, conductor and accompanist. Craig has studied conducting under Robert Rosen here in Australia, and Carmen Dragon in the United States, and is a life member of Southern Area Concert Band.

Darryn Wright has been President of Southern Area Concert Band for the past six years and has recently taken on the role of the band's Associate Conductor. He has been playing music since the age of five and was recently Musical Director for Brentwood Secondary College's production of Anything Goes and A-Muse Theatre Company's production of Let us A-Muse You! Darryn has performed with various instrumental and vocal ensembles around Melbourne and is Musical Director of the Glen Waverley Uniting Church Orchestra.

Jeremy de Korte began playing violin at the age of 5 and turned his attention to the oboe at the age of 15. Joining SACB soon after, Jeremy has enjoyed competition success winning two VBL State Oboe Championship prizes. Jeremy has studied music at both Box Hill TAFE and Monash University where he has gained degrees in Music and Education. Jeremy is currently a member of Stonnington City Brass Band (percussion), and is currently working as the founding director of SATB.

The Southern Area Concert Band is always seeking new members to join us in our music making. If you are, or know anyone who may be interested in joining either the Concert Band or the Southern Area Training Band, please feel free to speak to any band member during the interval or after today's performance, or to contact Darryn at any time on the number below.

If you have enjoyed this afternoon's entertainment, please join us at our forthcoming events:
