

MEET OUR CONDUCTORS

Darryn Wright has been President of Southern Area Concert Band since June, 1999 and has recently taken on the role of the band's Music Director, after Craig Seymour's retirement. He has been playing music (keyboard) since the age of five, was invited to be Musical Director for Brentwood Secondary College's 2005 and 2006 productions and has been involved with many amateur theatre musical productions. Darryn has performed with various instrumental and vocal ensembles around Melbourne, is Musical Director of the Glen Waverley Uniting Church Orchestra and is the treasurer of The Australian Band and Orchestra Directors' Association.

Jeremy de Korte began playing violin at the age of 5 and turned his attention to the oboe at the age of 15. Joining SACB soon after, Jeremy has enjoyed competition success winning two VBL State Oboe Championship prizes. Jeremy has studied music at both Box Hill TAFE and Monash University where he has gained degrees in Music and Education. Jeremy is currently a member of Stonnington City Brass Band (percussion), and is currently working as the founding director of SATB.

The Southern Area Concert Band is always seeking new members to join us in our music making. If you are, or know anyone who may be interested in joining either the Concert Band or the Southern Area Training Band, please feel free to speak to any band member during the interval or after today's performance, or to contact Darryn at any time on the number below.

If you have enjoyed this afternoon's entertainment, please join us at our forthcoming event:
