

MEET OUR CONDUCTORS

Darryn Wright has been a member of Southern Area Concert Band since 1997 and moved into the role of Music Director at the end of 2006 following Craig Seymour's retirement. Darryn has been playing music (keyboard) since the age of five with his first public performance not long thereafter at age 7. During his time at SACB, Darryn has played alto saxophone, tenor saxophone, flute and percussion. Other than for the band, Darryn's passion lies in musical theatre and has been involved in many amateur theatre and school productions, the most recent being as Music Director for the Brentwood College 2008 production of The Wiz. Since moving from Tasmania in 1996, Darryn has performed with numerous instrumental and vocal ensembles around Melbourne, including The Savoy Opera Company and he is currently the treasurer of the Victorian branch of The Australian Band and Orchestra Directors' Association.

Eve Macleod began playing piano at the age of 5 and soon turned to flute, clarinet and saxophone. Having completed her Diploma of Music in 2005, Eve is currently teaching at Mordialloc College and runs the school's jazz band, and junior and senior concert bands. Eve was the assistant Musical Director for Mordialloc College's production of "Grease" in 2007. Eve joined Southern Area Concert Band after our combined performance at Melbourne zoo in November 2007.

The Southern Area Concert Band is always seeking new members to join us in our music making. If you are, or know anyone who may be interested in joining either the Southern Area Concert Band or the
