

MEET OUR CONDUCTORS

Darryn Wright has been a member of Southern Area Concert Band since 1998 and moved into the role of Music Director at the end of 2006 following Craig Seymour's retirement. Darryn has been playing music (keyboard) since the age of five, flute since year 8, and saxophone for 15 years. He has performed in many instrumental and choral ensembles throughout Melbourne and has been involved with various amateur and school musical stage productions as music director. Darryn is currently the treasurer of the National and Victorian branches of The Australian Band and Orchestra Directors' Association.

Eve Macleod began playing piano at the age of 5 and turned her attention to flute, saxophone and clarinet not long thereafter. Eve has played in many ensembles around Melbourne, including the Peninsula Youth Music Society and the Jack Morris Big Band. She has taught instrumental and classroom music at Leongatha, Wonthaggi and Korumburra Secondary Colleges, and is currently teaching at Mordialloc College. Eve joined Southern Area Concert Band in 2007, after an inaugural zoo concert with the Mordialloc College senior band, and took on the role of Training band conductor in 2008.

The Southern Area Concert Band is always seeking new members to join us in our music making. If you are, or know anyone who may be interested in joining either the Southern Area Concert Band or the Southern Area Training Band, please feel free to speak to any band member during the interval or after today's performance, or to contact Darryn at any time 0401 988 141.
